

Iain Forbes

Guitar Virtuoso & Singer/Songwriter

Iain Forbes is considered by those who know of him as one of the UK's finest virtuoso guitarists and is often described as a world class guitarist. He effortlessly fuses blues, classical, jazz, and folk styles on an acoustic guitar. To hear him playing an electric guitar with soaring lead solos will have any Jimi Hendrix, Santana or rock aficionado shouting for more.

His first recognition as a Virtuoso solo guitarist was in 2003 at the Celtic Connections festival. Iain won a prestigious Danny Kyle award for his solo performance in which he competed with bands and musicians from all over the UK.

Recently he worked with award winning Film maker Jim Brown and B4 films providing original music for a film and documentary featuring King Charles III and other members of the Royal Family. The Prince's Vision had its TV premiere in Australia in July 2016 and 'A Royal Grand Design' by ITV1 in November 2022. 'His beautiful music and extraordinary playing has lifted the films to another level' - Jim Brown/B4 Films - Award winning Film maker.

Since 2001, he has recorded 10 albums of his own music and released 'A Singing Birdbox' in June 2021. He has also recorded, produced and guested on other albums too.

Iain has dazzled audiences at many festivals and music venues around the UK with his multi-styled guitar playing. Some notable concert venues he has played include The Royal Concert Hall, The Barrowlands, The SECC and the Fruitmarket in Glasgow. He has played on bills with many world class artists such as Steve Harley (Cockney Rebel) Mike Peters (The Alarm) Don Powell/Slade, Steve Norman/Spandau Ballet, Eddie Reader, Brian Kennedy, Gerry McAvoys Band of Friends, Donnie Munro/Runrig, John Renbourn, The James Brown Band, Ally McErlaine/Red Sky July, Horse McDonald, Ricki Lee Jones, Bruce Molsky, Joscho Stephan, John Goldie, Tony McManus, John Doyle, Fraser Speirs, Elliot Randall/Steely Dan, Jerry Donahue/Hellecasters and Carl Verheyen/Supertramp.

Iain used to play an annual event for Gibson Guitars and The Nordoff Robbins Charity every year and was given an artist deal by Gibson.

Iain formed Melodic Rock band The Audiorayz in 2015 as frontman/guitarist with an excellent line up of musicians behind him. They released their self-titled debut album of original material in May 2016. See their facebook page or check the album out on iTunes or Spotify. www.facebook.com/theaudiorayz or www.soundcloud.com/the-audiorayz

Iain appeared on STV Glasgow Riverside Show on 28th April 2015. He played a track of his own called 'The Weegie Jig' on Solo guitar and also closed the show with his new band 'The Audiorayz'. "Stunning performance of The Weegie Jig" - STV Glasgow.

'My Old Friend' – a song penned by Iain has been used in its entirety to end a new action film called 'Holiday Monday'. The film has been released and is available right now on streaming services in the UK, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Sweden, USA and Amazon.

Iain also appeared on National television news stations and newspapers in 2015 alongside Nicola Sturgeon. The 1st minister of Scotland Re-opened The Clutha Bar in Glasgow on the 24th July 2015 and paid respect to families and victims of the tragedy that occurred in 2013. Iain was happy to be in the 1st act to play the venue and play for the families and the 1st minister on this important occasion.

'Iain Forbes is one of the best guitarists to come out of Scotland in a very long time' - Tom Russell / Rock DJ.

For more info - www.iainforbes.com and www.facebook.com/theaudiorayz or www.facebook.com/fingerbusting